

Closed Captioning on television has made television accessible to me. Without captioning, I am reduced to learning the news, weather, current events, etc., through newspapers and magazines which are, of course, always a day late. The quality of captioning on NBC is terrible. CNN doesn't caption all of its programs.